DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-6, 8, 9, and 14-20 are allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 10-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ngo et al in view of Feng et al and further in view of Weinstein et al, US Patent 5,208,786. Ngo discloses a system for separating two audio channels A and B comprising delay parameter estimation module 20 for estimating a delay parameters for a plurality of data frames and generating separated outputs at 80 and 82, Ngo does not disclose a calibration module for the gain levels between the plurality of channels. Feng discloses a signal processing method and apparatus comprising microphones 22 and 24, dual delay lines 342, operation arrays 352, localization unit 360, extraction unit 380 and output device 90 in figure 10. The dual delay lines 342 contain multipliers 346 which are used to normalize gain levels between the plurality of channels. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to modify Ngo to have the calibration gain units of Feng for the purpose of improving the signal separation process. The combination of Ngo et al and Feng et al does not disclose that the compensation is accomplished in the time domain. Weinstein et al discloses a multi-channel signal separation apparatus comprising signals S<sub>1</sub> and S<sub>2</sub>, processor 14, and reconstruction filter 12. The reconstruction filter 12 works in the time domain. Therefore, it was well known to achieve blind source separation in the time domain while compensating for signal attenuation. Thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to implement such a technique in the combination of Ngo et al and Feng et al.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
